Interdisciplinary University Study Programme in Administrative Information Systems

There are nine mandatory courses in Year 1. Year 2 consists of nine mandatory and one elective course. In Year 3 there are seven mandatory courses, two elective courses and the Diploma Thesis.

General elective courses

Students are able to select optional courses from a list of options offered by other study programmes at both faculties.

- 3rd Year
- 2nd Year
- 1st Year

Diploma Thesis

Software Engineering

Information Systems in Public Administration

User Interfaces

Data Management Technologies

Methods and Techniques for Decision Support in Administration

Legal Regulation of Public Administration

Introduction to Probability and Statistics

Economics

Databases

Introduction to Computer Science

Informatics Planning and Management

Theory of Organisation

Public Sector Management

Programming 1

Programming 2

Theory of Public Administration

English 1

Web Technologies

Administrative Procedure and Administrative Dispute

English 1

Graphic Design

Human Resource Management in Public Sector

General elective course

Electronic Business

Business Process Informatisation in Public Administration

Computer Communications

General elective course

Information Systems Development

General elective course