

Professional Study Programme in Computer and Information Science

Year 1 consists of ten mandatory courses. In year two, two courses are mandatory, seven courses are professional elective courses and one is a general elective course. In year 3, there is one mandatory course, four professional elective courses and one general elective course, along with work practice and the diploma seminar.

General elective courses offered at FRI:
 English - level A,B,C, Computer Science in Practice I,
 Computer Science in Practice II,
 Physical Education,
 Use of IT for Study, or other course provided by the faculties of the University of Ljubljana with the equivalent number of ECTS.